MODERN FIRESIDE POETS with ERICA BAUERMEISTER and KAREN KARBO
Tuesday, November 10, 2020

Thank you so much for joining The Wayside Inn Foundation and A Lively Read tonight!

Because it is difficult to coordinate selling books “at” a virtual event, we wanted to provide you with this resource sheet full of lots of great information about Erica Bauermeister, Karen Karbo, and all the wonderful books that they’ve written – as well as how to buy them.

ERICA BAUERMEISTER

{The books that are linked below will take you to Erica’s author page on Bookshop, an online bookstore – much like Amazon, but with a mission to financially support local and independent bookstores. In addition to checking out her own books, please make sure to visit her page to also see her other book recommendations!}

House Lessons: Renovating a Life (2020)

The Scent Keeper (2020)

The School of Essential Ingredients (2010)

The Lost Art of Mixing (2013)

Joy For Beginners (2012)

500 Great Books by Women: A Reader’s Guide (with Jesse Larsen and Holly Smith, 1994)

Let’s Hear it for Girls: 375 Great Books For Readers 2-14 (with Holly Smith, 1997)

Thank you again for joining us for Modern Fireside Poets. A bit about us...

The Wayside Inn is a nonprofit charitable Massachusetts corporation created in 1944 to own, operate, and maintain the Wayside Inn Historic Site, a campus of 9 historic buildings on more than 100 acres. Its mission promotes early American humanities through hospitality, education, and programming, and continues an innkeeping tradition dating back to 1716. The site provides an opportunity for visitors from near and far to gather, engage, and find meaning, relevance, and inspiration through a place-based exploration of history.

You may follow The Wayside Inn on Facebook, Twitter, and Instagram and/or subscribe to our newsletter here. Even better: Come visit us in person!

A Lively Read is the project of writer, editor, and communications consultant Amy Wilson Sheldon. Her mission is to connect words and people via her blog and social media accounts devoted to books and reading culture, as well as live events.

You may connect with Amy via A Lively Read's website or on social media: Instagram and Facebook. For periodic "bookish" updates to your inbox, you can subscribe here.
